Clinical Social Work Practitioner

Pediatric End of Life Doula

Medical Reiki Practitioner

Corie S. Cook LCSW, ACSW, CEOLD, CMRM is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, Certified End of Life Doula and Certified Master Level Medical Reiki practitioner. Ms. Cook specializes in medical trauma and vicarious medical trauma. Her therapy practice focuses on parents and other familial caregivers who are caring for a medically fragile child and going beyond typical parenting, by supporting their children through pain, illness, frequent medical procedures and other complex medical issues. Ms. Cook uses an eclectic approach to therapy, that includes mindfulness-based cognitive therapy, intuitive therapy, and strengths-based therapy. Ms. Cook also provides pediatric end of life doula services for families preparing to part with their medically fragile and complex child.

Ms. Cook initially received her bachelor's degree in social work from Boise State University in 2003. She graduated with honors and was inducted into the Phi Alpha Honor Society. Ms. Cook completed a master's degree in clinical social work in 2005, graduating summa cum laude at Northwest Nazarene University. She was given the Outstanding Scholar Award and the Outstanding Thesis Award by the Northwest Nazarene University School of Social Work on May 14, 2005. Ms. Cook was added to the Academy of Certified Social Workers in 2012 through the National Association of Social Workers. In 2016, She added Reiki training in order to better assist clients emotionally and spiritually. Ms. Cook is currently a Reiki Master-Teacher, a Raven Keys Medical Reiki International Certified Medical Reiki Master, and a University of Vermont College of Medicine Certified End of Life Doula. She has been providing service as a clinical therapist for over two decades.

Ms. Cook is a fourth-generation Idahoan. She currently lives in Boise, Idaho with her husband of 22 years, and their two children. Ms. Cook enjoys the Idaho outdoors, including hiking, gardening, frequent visits to the Boise River and the Boise Foothills, and other outdoor Idaho excursions. She is also honored to be the guardian of two adults with intellectual developmental disabilities.
